The Student Success Center (SSC) is a valuable resource to Odessa College students needing academic tutoring, study skills training, assistance with Web-based courses, and many other services which promote and enhance the learning process. All services of the Center are free to OC students.

The SSC offers:

- Personal tutors/peer mentors – Tutoring in various academic areas including developmental coursework, conducted preferably by appointment. Walk-ins are always welcome.
- Online tutoring via Blackboard – call 335-6714 to make an appointment
- Individual and small group study rooms
- THEA/ COMPASS preparation and assessment review
- Access to computers and printers
- English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) assistance – Rosetta Stone
- Project Transition in Education (TIE)
- Resources for learning styles assessment

Writing Assistance

The SSC offers one-on-one help to students with any aspect of their writing. Tutors are available to help at any stage of the writing process with such things as choosing a topic; creating a thesis statement; developing and organizing ideas; revision; editing; and citing sources.

Workshops/ Trainings

SSC workshops are available all year to help students develop skills in a variety of areas to promote success and general well-being in college. Topics include but are not limited to the following:

- College Survival Skills
- Test Anxiety
- Time Management
- Critical Thinking
- Basic Skills Training
- Blackboard 101

The Learning Resources Center staff welcomes all new and returning students. We are ready to help you with your research whether you need a scholarly article from the Civil War era or up-to-the-minute breaking news. The library carries a variety of reliable electronic resources that are available 24/7 whether you live locally or in another country, including over 50,000 electronic books and hundreds of thousands of periodical articles. Our print and electronic collections are selected with input from faculty, so we have what you need to complete your research.

Adult Basic Education

Odessa College offers basic education classes for out-of-school adults 17 years of age or older who have not completed high school. Classes range from instruction to teach adults to read and write to classes that prepare adults to successfully complete the GED (General Education Development) test.

English for Speakers of Other Languages also is offered for out-of-school adults 17 years of age or older.

Call 432-335-6380 for more information about eligibility requirements, schedules and locations of classes.

Other Academic Regulations

For regulations covering withdrawal from the college, dropping courses, grades, degree plans, degree requirements, etc., see the Odessa College Bulletin – Catalog of Courses.

Changes in Schedule

Class schedules, classroom locations and instructor assignments are tentative and subject to change. In adopting course numbers, titles and descriptions from The Workforce Education Course Manual as instituted by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, some course numbers, titles and descriptions may change after this bulletin is published. Records of such changes are available in the OC Help Center and the Office of the Vice President for Instruction.
