

ODESSA COLLEGE STUDENTS IN PHILANTHROPY
$1000.00 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FOR 2010/2011

The Odessa College Students in Philanthropy is an educational leadership program designed to increase an awareness of the value and importance of service to the community through philanthropy. Philanthropy may be defined as "voluntary action for the public good," including voluntary service, voluntary association and voluntary giving. The OC Students in Philanthropy program provides a structured class designed to educate, support, and promote philanthropic leadership in the community. Participants will develop, implement, and evaluate a fundraiser during the fall semester. During the spring semester students will distribute their earnings to various non-profit agencies that benefit the community of Odessa based on numerous criteria, including site visits. Students selected to participate in the program will participate for one full academic year, beginning with the fall semester and ending upon completion of the spring semester.

Applications must be signed and returned with two letters of recommendation (one of which needs to be from a school official) to the Student Financial Services office before June 4, 2010.
