Odessa College Choir to perform at annual Christmas concert

For immediate release

ODESSA (Nov. 20, 2008) – Get into the holiday spirit with the Odessa College Choir and Vocal Ensemble as they present “Songs of the Season” at their annual Christmas concert.

The performance begins at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 5, in Deaderick Auditorium on the OC campus. General admission is free to the public.

The Choir and Vocal Ensemble, directed by David Corman and accompanied by LuAnn Lane, will perform traditional holiday music including Handel’s Messiah, the Pinkham Christmas Cantata, and holiday favorites such as Sleigh Ride, We Three Kings, We Wish You a Merry Christmas and Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy. The concert also will feature numerous student solos.

For more information on the performance contact David Corman, OC choral director, at 335-6631.
