Odessa College to host annual ‘Disability Awareness Day’ Oct. 16

ODESSA (Oct. 3, 2008) – October is National Disability Awareness Month and for the fourth consecutive year Odessa College is hosting awareness events on campus.

Odessa College Special Populations Office and Disability Services will host its annual “Disability Awareness Day” from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 16 in the newly constructed Rudy Acosta Pavilion adjacent to the Wi-fi Java Cyber Cafe on the OC campus.

The community is invited to learn more about services available for those with disabilities in our community. Refreshments and giveaways also will be available.

Former OC employee Dale Williams will be the guest speaker for the event. Williams currently serves as a counselor and disability specialist at Midland College.

For more information contact Becky Rivera-Weiss, OC special populations outreach specialist, at 335-6861. To learn more about how Odessa College assists college students who have disabilities, call Cheri Dalton, OC director of media relations, at 335-6416.
