Odessa College Jazz Band to perform at annual fall concert

ODESSA (Nov. 20, 2008) – Music lovers can enjoy an evening filled with a variety of music including a couple of Christmas tunes as the Odessa College Jazz Band performs at its upcoming fall concert.

The lively performance will include Big Band milestones such as String of Pearls, Li'l Darlin' and Opus One. Selections also include A Mis Abuelos (To My Grandparents) a trumpet solo by Jim Fry and Night In Havana.

The performance conducted by OC band director Charles Nail also will feature several selections with vocalist Cindy Ward, including Let It Snow! Let It Snow! Let It Snow!; Kansas City and the Bette Midler arrangement of Have a Cool Yule.

The music begins at 8 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 4 at Deaderick Auditorium on the OC campus. General admission is $5 for the public. All students are admitted to the event free of charge.

For more information please contact OC band director Charles Nail at 335-6623.
