Odessa College nurse pinning ceremony to take place Dec. 11

ODESSA (Dec. 9, 2008) – Odessa College will honor 30 graduate candidates in the nursing program at the fall 2008 nurse pinning ceremony at 7 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 11 at Crescent Park Baptist Church, 3002 E. University in Odessa.

Odessa College's newest nursing faculty member Carol Cates, a former OC nursing graduate, will serve as the guest speaker for the ceremony. Students also will recite the Nightingale Pledge, and a traditional candle light ceremony used by many nursing schools will take place to celebrate the students' accomplishments. Family and friends are invited to attend.

The Odessa College nursing program has been in operation since 1962, supplying trained nurses to the local and national workforces.
