

SACSCOC Prospectus Writing New Program – Approval

This document outlines the required narrative and supporting documentation for submitting a prospectus for new academic programs. Items highlighted in RED are the responsibility of the Director of Institutional Quality, Effectiveness, and Compliance. Items highlighted in GREEN can be sourced from the prospectus submitted to the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board and/or your third-party accrediting body. Please note: Missing items will prevent us from submitting your prospectus to SACSCOC in time for your intended program launch. SACSCOC approval is mandatory—new programs cannot be implemented without it.

Common Content A – Background and Context

1. A Substantive Change Cover Sheet [\[PDF\]](#).
2. A transmittal letter signed by the CEO or institutional liaison briefly explaining the submission. Substantive Change Policy and Procedures – Page 63
3. A list of programs offered by the institution (excerpt from the catalog or a printout of a webpage is acceptable).
4. Abstract (one page maximum)
 - a. Briefly describe the proposed change to include the intended implementation date.
 - b. Provide projected number of students, if applicable.
 - c. Indicate the projected life of the change, as applicable: one-time/limited duration or ongoing.
 - d. Describe the primary target audience or market.
 - e. Describe the strengths of the institution to undertake the change.
5. Describe how the need for the change was determined and how the change was approved by the institution.
6. Describe how the change is consistent with the mission and goals of the institution.
7. Provide documentation of faculty involvement in the planning and approval of the change. (Program Development Proposal and Minutes, Curriculum Committee Signed Packet, Department Meeting Minutes, Emails, etc.)
8. Provide evidence of legal authority for the change if approval is required by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

If the change is pending approval by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, note the expected approval date specifically in the narrative. Once the new program is approved by the THECB, then evidence of approval must be furnished to the Director for Quality, Effectiveness, and Compliance.

Evidence of all required approvals, THECB and/or third-party accreditation bodies, must be turned in to the office of the Director for Institutional Quality, Effectiveness, and Compliance.

New Program Content

10. Provide the curriculum for the program.
11. Provide a projected schedule of course offerings for the program.
12. Provide program-specific goals, mission, vision, objectives, and Key Performance Indicators (CIP) and specific student learning outcomes (PSLOS) for the program.
13. Describe the student learning outcomes for the program will be assessed.

14. Provide course descriptions for all courses in the proposed program. (Do not provide syllabi).
15. Describe admissions and graduate requirements for the program.
16. Demonstrate compliance with standard 10.7 (policies for awarding credit) of the Principles of Accreditation.
17. Describe administrative oversight to ensure the quality of the program.
18. For a program offered in compressed time frames, describe the methodology for determining that levels of knowledge and competencies comparable to those required in the traditional formats have been achieved.

Common Content B – Faculty Qualifications, relative to the proposed change

19. Provide a completed Faculty Roster Form for faculty members scheduled to teach in the new program, site, or method of delivery. Follow directions for completing the Faculty Roster, which requires the institution to present the qualifications of each faculty member to teach the courses assigned to them. Provide classes to be taught in the first year of the new program or site; do not include historical teaching assignments.
 - a. Faculty Roster Form
 - b. Faculty Roster Form Instruction
20. For a new program, demonstrate the institution has at least one faculty member qualified in the discipline to develop the curriculum and or teach in the program (Refer to Standard 6.2a (Faculty qualifications) of the Principles of Accreditation. To-be-hired faculty can be included on the Faculty Roster with expected qualifications for teaching the courses assigned and an active posting of the job description.
21. Provide a narrative with supporting evidence to demonstrate that the number of full-time faculty members will be adequate to support the initiative and describe the impact on faculty workload of the new program, new site, or distance delivery.
22. For a program requiring demonstrated competencies (ex., Relevant technical training, certification, experience, etc.), include (a) alternative work experience credentials of faculty members teaching in the program and/or (b) alternative course studies that qualify them based on course-specific student learning outcomes.

Common Content C – Resources

Library and Learning Resources

23. List and describe discipline-specific learning resources to support a new program. Do not list all library resources; include only those related to the proposed change. If electronic databases are listed, describe the discipline-specific suites of resources rather than the name only of the database or the consortium through which it is accessed (Such as TexShare). You may request in advance a printout from the LRC librarians.
24. Document discipline-specific refereed journals and primary source materials. This is particularly important for programs that have a third-party accreditation body.
25. Describe how students enrolled in a new program, at an off-campus instructional site, or in a distance education program can access discipline-specific library and learning resources.

26. Describe how students are made aware of library and learning resources available to them, how they can learn how to access the resources and are instructed in the use of online resources, as well as on-site library resources.
27. Describe resources to support students in access to and use of library and learning/information resources.

Student Support Services

28. Describe specific programs, services, and activities which will support students enrolled in the new program and/or enrolled at a new off-campus site /additional location and/or enrolled in distance education programs. Do not list student support services that are not relevant to the specific change.

Physical Resources

29. Describe the adequacy of physical facilities that will support the change.
30. Describe equipment that will be available for a new program or available at a new site. (ex: Include paid invoices as evidence of equipment availability).
31. Describe the impact that the proposed change will have on physical facilities and equipment for existing programs and services.

Financial Resources

32. Describe the financial resources available to support the proposed change, including a budget for the first year of the proposed change. For a new OCIS, or new branch campus, a three-year budget is required. Do not include the institutional budget.
33. Include in the budget resources going to institutions or organizations for contractual or support services for the proposed change.
34. Include projected revenues and expenditures and cash flow for the proposed change.
Note: Request budgets from the business office.
35. Include a contingency plan in case expected revenues do not materialize (approved by the OC Board of Trustees).

Common Content D – Institutional Evaluation and Assessment Processes

36. Provide a brief description of institutional assessment processes.
37. Describe how the institution will incorporate the proposed change into the institution-wide assessment infrastructure and processes. Provide evidence of OCCMA, PSLO, and/or GEN. ED assessment design, processes, and implementation schedules specific to the program.(IRA Map, Prep Sheet, Rubrics)

REMEMBER:

Prospectuses are limited to 25 pages exclusive of appendices. Make judicious use of appendices by including only information necessary to support the institution's proposed change. Moving content to an appendix is acceptable to meet the 25-page limit; Faculty Rosters, for example, may be moved to an appendix as necessary at the institution's discretion. Respect substantive change reviewers' time and professional judgment by providing direct, relevant, and complete information.

Prospectuses must be self-contained. The prospectus may not include materials by reference by linking to an external website. All information proffered by the institution in support of the proposed change must be on file.
