COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is geared towards those with previous cheer experience (i.e. high school cheerleading, all-star cheer gyms) with interest of continuing at the collegiate level. Students can expect to learn intermediate to advance skills of cheer technique through warm ups, tumbling, and partnering/group stunts. Students will also learn anatomical terms and explore various cheer skills. Students will be required to attend all Cheer Team practices, games and events.

SCANS: (0-3) (36.0108.5123) 1 hour

Introduces basic/advanced skills and techniques of cheerleading such as partner stunts, incorporation of pyramids, safety techniques and jumps. By participating as a team, individuals learn how to cooperate with other team members in solving problems and in motivating a crowd. Performing at athletic events permits the individuals an opportunity to exhibit responsibility as well as to build self-esteem. Lab fee required. (SCANS 5, 9, 10) Prerequisite: PHED 1130.

LEARNING OUTCOMES (competencies) and methods of Evaluation used to determine the students achieved the outcome (competencies):

To demonstrate competency in the ability to understand and put into practice the techniques of various cheer skills, the student must be able to:

- Recognize the basic principles of motions, stunting, tumbling and jump techniques.
- Demonstrate knowledge of precaution that should be taken while performing the various cheerleading exercises.
- Development of cheer technique, alignment, flexibility, strength, stamina, centering and transference of body weight.

To demonstrate competency in the ability to maintain and improve flexibility, endurance and strength, the student must be able to:

- Improvement of movement memory: ability to pick up movements faster and remember them longer.

- Improvement of musicality/timing in dance: learning about rhythm, tempo, meter, and phrasing to develop rhythmic skills in dance.
- Improvement of neuromuscular coordination: precise control and placement of body parts.

To demonstrate competency in knowledge of how cheerleading can enhance general well-being and health, the student must be able to:

- Development of dynamic qualities of movement required for clarity, focus, and expressiveness.
- Integration of critical thinking skills through reading and written assignments that will enhance experiential concepts.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Your attendance is the greatest predictor of your success. It is important that you attend every class and event – it is expected. You should expect that each absence will adversely affect your course grade. The only excused absences that will be accepted are college-sponsored activities, anticipated absences and medical emergencies. It is your responsibility to contact the instructor before class begins. Anyone leaving class, practices or events early without the instructor’s permission will be counted absent for the entire class.
