Course: HIST 1302

Location: DH 216

Times: M 7-8:20pm (Hybrid)

Credit Hours: 3

Objective: The purpose of this course is for the student to develop an understanding about the political, economical, social, cultural, and diplomatic history of the United States, as well as following the development of America as a world power covering the years after 1877. All material in the textbook is testable and it is your responsibility to read the chapters. SCANS 6 and 9.

Text: The Unfinished Nation: A Concise History of the American People, 6th Edition, by Brinkley, ISBN # 13-978-0-07-338552-5

Grading Policy: Test 1 = 15%, Test 2 = 15%, Test 3 = 15%, Test 4/Final Exam = 15%,
Web Assignments (8 @ 2.5% each) = 20%, Research Project = 20%

Grading Scale: A = 90-100 B = 80-89 C = 70-79 D = 60-69 F = below 60

Attendance & Participation: Regular attendance and participation is essential to achieving satisfactory progress, therefore it is the student's responsibility to attend class and keep up with the assigned readings so that participation in class discussions and proper understanding of the material can occur. Please let me know if you require special accommodations.

Tests & Final Exam: There will be a total of four tests, with the fourth exam being your final exam. The tests will consist of multiple choice and essay questions. All exams will cover 3-5 chapters, including the Final Exam which is not comprehensive. It is imperative that students complete reading assignments in order to be better prepared for the exams. I do not drop any test grades. Make-up exams will only be allowed with permission from the instructor and will be a different version comprised of the textbook's test bank- Exceptions could be made at the Instructor's discretion. No study guides will be provided although students will be allowed to use one index card on the test. If the material on the index card is typed, only one side of a 3x5 card can be used; if it is hand-written you may use both sides of a 5x7 card.

Extra Credit: In this age of technology it is imperative that college students master the art of internet research, therefore for every exam up to ten extra credit points can be earned if the student submits to me a summary describing a website they found pertinent to the test material- DO NOT use websites such as Wikipedia, Dictionary.com, etc.- Actually research a site related to the material. The summary should include the URL, the date accessed, author and/or organization that maintain the site, a brief description of the website, and why or why not you found it useful. The extra credit assignment is due one week after the exam date and only one extra credit assignment can be turned in per test. The assignment must be submitted via e-mail at dmregalado@odessa.edu.

Research Project: The research project will consist of two components: a research paper and a presentation- Project can be completed in groups of 3-5 members and students will have the opportunity to choose their own members. The research paper will count as 15% and the presentation will count as 5% of the project. 1) Research Paper: The research paper will be 8-10 pages typed, double-spaced, one-inch margins, 12 point font, and properly cited discussing any topic on American History after the year 1877. You may use any writing style you would like to cite your paper, although I would suggest using the style commonly used by your major. Your sources should include a minimum of: three books, one website, and a scholarly journal. The paper will be graded on penmanship, topic, content, format, and grammar. Late papers will be penalized 5% of the final grade for every day that it is late. 2) Presentations: Each individual/group will be required to give a 10-15 minute PowerPoint presentation on the topic they chose for their research paper. I accept rough drafts at anytime.

Research Day: This day will be for your benefit- It is your chance to edit your rough draft, discuss your topic with your group members, review your sources, or complete/discuss any other tasks for your research project.

Web Assignments: This course is a hybrid course which means there is face-to-face and web course components. You are required to complete 8 web assignments, the total of which is worth more than a test grade. To complete these you will log in to Blackboard and post on the discussion board. The assignment includes both posting an original thread and replying to one student's post (Original thread should be 200-250 words and reply should be 50-100 words). The Professor will discuss the information on how to complete these assignments on the first day of class.

Scholastic Dishonesty: Plagiarism and cheating will not be tolerated and will be handled in accordance to the OC Student Code of Conduct/Board Policy Manual. The Professor has the right to, at his discretion, add or alter any assignments, exams, and or methods.

Classroom Etiquette: Please turn off all cell phones- DO NOT TEXT (Or hold non-course discussions) during class. If it is a necessity that you keep your cell phone on please put it on vibrate or discuss the matter with me before class. You may eat or drink in class...just keep in mind to be courteous to your fellow students.
