Textbook: Brinkley: The Unfinished Nation; A Concise History of the American People; sixth edition.

Assignments: The examinations will begin with Chapter Sixteen and continue through Chapter Thirty with an exam posted every other day.

The first exam will open at 7:00 am on Tuesday, June 7, 2011 and will remain open until 7:00 am, Wednesday, June 8, 2011. The next exam will open on Thursday, June 9, 2011 at 7:00 am and remain open until the same time the following day. In other words, you will read one day and test the next. This will be the schedule we will follow the entire summer session (including week-ends). You may take your exam at any time during the twenty-four hour window, but once the exam closes, it will not be re-opened. We will be covering Chapters Sixteen through Thirty. These assignments will consist of some type of multiple choice questions, fill in the blank, true/false, or possibly a combination of these formats. Your final exam will be a modified, comprehensive exam consisting of various questions from previous exams and will have fifty questions. Your final will be made available at 7:00 am on Thursday, July 7, 2011, and will remain open until 1:00 pm that same day. There will be only one attempt for the final exam and it will be force completion

All course work will be submitted through the blackboard system and each assignment will be announced through the announcement icon on the course website. This makes activating your student email account mandatory. Critical information pertaining to course work is always sent via the OC system. All exams weigh equally.

Grading Policy: All assignments weigh equally . Final semester grades will be based on the following averages: 90-100 = A, 80-89 = B, 70-79 = C, 60-69 = D, below 60 = F.

General Guidelines: As with any "cyber-space class" there can be glitches in the system. Power failures, storms, viruses, spilled drinks, personal emergencies can all interfere with our success. Hopefully, none of these things will occur, but if they do, simply contact me through one of the contact points provided in this syllabus and we will attempt to fix the problem. It is always my intention to respond to you within 24 hours of your contact, but emergencies happen for me as well and I will respond to your contact as soon as possible. It is always a good idea to check your email daily for any course you are taking.

Learning Objectives

Learning Objectives

Course Objective: This survey course in US History is designed to provide the student with the basic knowledge and understanding of present institutions through the study of their past development. This course should also give the student a better understanding of germane disciplines such as political science, sociology, philosophy, literature, and economics in addition to preparing the student for careers in teaching, law, and public service
