Course Goals: Anatomy and Physiology II is the second semester of a two-semester course. The student will learn the structures and functions of seven of the eleven organ systems, as well as how each interacts with the others. The laboratory portion of this course will provide the student with hands-on learning experiences to reinforce the information obtained in the lecture portion.

Prerequisites: A minimum grade of “C” in BIOL 2401.

SCANS: 1, 6, 9

Required Books:

Textbook: Human Anatomy & Physiology, 8th ed., by Elaine N. Marieb.

Lab Manual: Human Anatomy & Physiology Laboratory Manual, 9th ed., by Elaine N. Marieb

Grading and evaluation:

Lecture Exams	(400 pts)
Final Exam	(150 pts)
Laboratory Practicals	(400 pts)

Lecture grades will be approximately 60% of the course grade and Laboratory grades will be approximately 40% of the course grade. Grades will be based on a percentile scale.

A = 90 – 100%, B = 80 – 89%, C = 70 – 79%, D = 60 – 69%, F = Below 60%

All Grades will be rounded to the nearest whole number. Lab grades will be combined with lecture grades for the final reported class grade. The student is responsible for keeping their own grades. Attendance is required in all lecture and lab periods. A tardy will be recorded as an absence. Three or more absences may result in a lower grade.

Make-up Exam Policy:

1. Each student will be allowed ONLY ONE make-up exam per semester. The “one make-up exam” rule includes both lecture and lab exams.
2. If a family crisis, severe illness or other emergency causes you to miss an exam, it is your responsibility to make arrangements for a make-up exam to be taken before the next class meeting following the exam.

3. If a Lab Practical will be missed, I must be notified prior to the exam and you will need to make arrangements to take the practical during another lab. It is your responsibility to find out when other lab times are offered and attend that test. You can attend any other instructors' lab to take the test because the lab practical for that material is only available that week. Lab practicals must be taken during one of the regularly scheduled lab periods. NO EXCEPTIONS.
4. In order to be eligible for any bonus and/or curve points added to lecture and laboratory exams, the student MUST have taken the exam with his course section at the regularly scheduled time. NO EXCEPTIONS.
5. There will be no make-up for the final exam, and the final must be taken at the assigned time during finals week.
