I want to help you develop analytical reading skills, your critical thinking skills, and to continue to develop your ability to clearly articulate your ideas. Expectations for Engagement – Online Learning

To help make the web-based learning experience fulfilling and rewarding, the following Expectations for Engagement provide the parameters for reasonable engagement between students and instructors for the online learning environment. Students and instructors are welcome to exceed these requirements.

Reasonable Expectations of Engagement for Instructors

1. As an instructor, I understand the importance of clear, timely communication with my students. In order to maintain sufficient communication, I will
 - provided my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;
 - respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday; and,
 - notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of emergencies during the time I'm unavailable.
2. As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will
 - provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and
 - communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.
3. As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will
 - post grades for discussion postings within one week of the discussion thread closing.
 - provide grades for major assignments within 2 weeks of the due date or at least 3 days before the next major assignment is due, whichever comes first.

Reasonable Expectations of Engagement for Students

1. As a student, I understand that I am responsible for keeping up with the course. To help with this, I will
 - line up alternative computer and internet access in case my primary computer crashes or my internet services is unavailable;
 - recognize that the college provides free wi-fi and computer labs during regular campus hours to help me with accessing my course; and,
 - understand that my instructor does not have to accept my technical issues as a legitimate reason for late or missing work if my equipment or service is unreliable.
2. As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate quickly with the instructor any issue or emergency that will impact my involvement with or performance in the class. This includes, but is not limited to
 - getting "kicked off" of the system during tests or quizzes;
 - having trouble submitting assignments; and
 - dealing with a traumatic personal event.
3. As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to understand course material and requirements and to keep up with the course calendar. While my instructor is available for help and clarification, I will

- seek out help from my instructor and/or from tutors;
- ask questions if I don't understand; and,
- access my course several times during the week to keep up with assignments and announcements.

The SEI process for face-to-face and online courses is scheduled for the week of April 28.

Computer Access

This is an online class, and you need to have regular access to a computer for this class:

Internet - You need to have dependable access to the internet.

Word Processor - All assignments should be typed, saved to your computer, and then submitted to Blackboard. If you don't have Word, most computers come with Works already loaded. Make sure to save documents in Rich Text Format. Some alternative word processors are the one on GoogleDocs or the free word processor available at www.openoffice.org.

Blackboard - You are responsible for any materials that can be found in our Blackboard course.

Odessa College email - When I send messages and reminders, they will go to this email. You are responsible for any information sent to your OC email.

Powerpoint - You can open Powerpoints in Blackboard. Here is a link for a free Powerpoint Viewer:
<http://www.microsoft.com/downloads/details.aspx?familyid=048dc840-14e1-467d-8dca-19d2a8fd7485&displaylang=en>.

Adobe Reader - If you don't have this already, you can download the reader for free at <http://www.adobe.com/>.

Even if you do not own a computer, you do have access to computers and printers in the Student Success Center on campus. Not having computer or printer access is not a valid excuse for failing to complete assignments on time.

Classroom Behavior

"I hate rude behavior in a man. I won't tolerate it." –Captain Woodrow Call, Lonesome Dove

I expect you to be respectful towards other students and myself during class and in any online interactions such as discussion forums or on email. Please do not hold conversations about topics that are not relevant to this class. I do want you to make comments, to ask questions, and to raise class concerns, and I will give you opportunities to do so. We will have periodic group and class discussions, and I expect you to be respectful toward your classmates at all times.

If behavior occurs that violates this policy, I will ask the student(s) to correct the behavior. If I have to do this more than a couple times during the semester, or if the student refuses to correct the behavior at the time I ask, I will give the student an official warning. I will send a copy of this warning to the student and appropriate administrators.

If you violate any aspect of the classroom behavior policy again after the warning, or if there is any case of very disruptive or disrespectful behavior, the same penalties will be given, and I will consult the Dean of Arts and Science about further disciplinary action.

If you have questions or concerns regarding an issue that concerns the whole class, such as a question about assignment instructions, please ask. If you have questions or concerns regarding an issue that pertains only to you, such as a question about a grade on one of your papers, please discuss that with me during office hours, through e-mail, or some other arranged time.

Attendance

Regular attendance is critical for your success in this class. If you are ill or have an emergency that prevents you from logging into the class, please let me know the nature of your problem. Failure to participate in the course will adversely affect your grade. This is an eight-week course, so it is important that you log in at least once a day.

Withdrawing from Class

April 16th is the last day you will be able to withdraw from a class with an automatic W. After that, you will receive the grade you currently have in the class. Please come by and talk to me if you are considering withdrawing or dropping this class. More often than not we can find a resolution for your concerns.
