DISCUSSION GROUPS

We will have several discussion group topics in this course. The discussions are not 'at will' but are considered an integral part of your learning. The selected topics will be posted online with specific instructions and due date. You will receive a grade for your discussion and responses to the other students' comments. You must participate in all four discussion topics. At the end of the discussion period, you must post your final "Summary" of the discussion topic on Blackboard under "Assignments"--the appropriate unit # and assignment name. Please see the discussion topics for detailed instructions. To enter into the discussion area you will go to Blackboard. Please follow the instructions as given. If you have any questions, please contact your instructor. Your grade will be based on the more detailed SUMMARY you will write on the discussion topic--elaborating on your initial comments and adding your views based on reading the posted comments of fellow students in the class.

IMPORTANT: Failure to post a comment on the Discussion Board and/or to post at least one response to another student's comments will lead to a loss of a letter grade.

EXAMINATIONS

There will be four exams, each worth 100 points. They will consist of two parts: objective, multiple choice, and matching; and essay. Possible essay questions will be provided from each of the units to aid in your study. Exams 1, 2, 3 and 4 will be taken on-line. You will have 50 minutes, after logging on, to complete the objective portion. A 200 point final exam over units 1-10 will be given, composed of all objective questions. Failure to take the exam on schedule will lead to a zero unless prior approval is given for exceptional circumstances." It could also lead to the loss of a letter grade.

You must schedule the final exam to be taken on the assigned day in either the OC Student Success Center or a secure testing facility. Arrangement must be approved by the instructor.

I RESERVE THE RIGHT TO DETERMINE IF YOU HAVE A VALID REASON FOR MISSING AN EXAM. YOU WILL NOT HAVE THE CHANCE TO TAKE A MAKE-UP FOR AN INVALID REASON.

MAKE-UP EXAMS AND QUIZZES

If you are unable to take a test during the assigned time period, you need to contact the instructor ASAP. Failure to do this will result in a loss of a letter grade on the exam. Otherwise, there are no make-ups. I RESERVE THE RIGHT TO DECIDE IF YOUR REASON FOR MISSING AN EXAM IS INVALID AND IF I SUSPECT IT IS, YOU WILL NOT HAVE THE CHANCE TO TAKE A MAKE-UP.

DISCUSSIONS

Two discussion topics will be posted and mandatory for all students to participate in as part of the discussion grade. Each question will be worth up to 100 points.

INTERNET ASSIGNMENTS

Two Internet assignments will be required. Each will be worth a total of 100 points--one in Unit 6--on Political Parties- and one in Unit 8--on Congress.

UNIT OBJECTIVE SHEETS

Unit objective sheets are included in the lecture notes. They will serve both as guide to what the instructor considers important from the texts, lecture notes, research, and discussions, and what the student is expected to know at the completion of the unit. They will also serve as a good study guide for the exams because the exam questions will be drawn from these objective sheets.

PROJECTS

Additional projects (research papers, book reports, etc.) beyond those assigned are optional. Topics or book must receive instructor approval. A written description must be submitted by the seventh week of class. Projects are due one week before the last scheduled class. A "Project Handout" explaining specific rules to follow and describing how the project will be graded will be posted on line. A project does not and cannot be substituted for a test grade. The project grade will be counted as an additional grade to be averaged in with all other grades.

LECTURE NOTES

Lecture notes for the class, emphasizing the major points of each unit, are available to supplement the textbook readings. These are found on the course Blackboard page under the "Lecture" button.

GRADING POLICY

The final course grade will be determined on a percentage basis:

90-100% = 900 points = A	Exam #1 100 points = 10% of course grade
80-89% = 800 points = B	Exam #2 100 points = 10% of course grade
70-79% = 700 points = C	Exam #3 100 points = 10% of course grade
60-69% = 600 points = D	Exam #4 100 points = 10% of course grade
Below 600 points or 60% = F	Discussion Participation = 200 points = 20% of course grade
	Four Internet Assignments = 200 points = 20% of course grade
	Final 200 points = 20% of course grade

BONUS POINTS

Twenty points for a current voters card will be given and added to your total point count before the course grade is averaged. Copies can be faxed, emailed or mailed to the instructor.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Online exams and papers are basically open book. However, I would prefer that you attempt to complete them without using the text or lecture notes. Exam taking should be done alone and not a collaborative effort performed with other students in the class or who have previously taken the class. Cheating or plagiarism will result in the grade of 0. Remember, on your essays and papers, cite your sources and URL sites.

ODESSA COLLEGE CODE OF STUDENT VIRTUAL COLLEGE EXPECTATIONS

How well you do in college is connected, at least in part, to how well you can adjust to the various expectations attached to your new role as a college student. Teachers will judge you by how well or poorly you conform to their expectations of a successful student. These guidelines do not represent those of all instructors, but it pays you to know, in general, what behaviors define a good student. Obviously, I may have slightly different expectations that you should ask about if they are not made clear to you early in the semester. What follows is a general description of what I expect from my students:

1. Good students behave in ways that enhance the learning experience for everyone in the class.
2. Good students are engaged in the class, often actively participating in discussion.
3. They use appropriate language in discussion: no profanity or foul language.
4. Good students practice personal and academic integrity.
5. They do not cheat on tests or other assignments.
6. They do not plagiarize on assignments: hand in the work of others as their own.
7. They do not lie or make excuses.
8. They complete assignments, projects, papers, and exams in a timely manner.
9. Good students respect the dignity and opinions of all people.
10. They do not compromise or demean the dignity of others by taunting, teasing, insulting, sexually harassing or discriminating.
11. They encourage the equal rights and treatment of all students, regardless of age, gender, race, religion, ethnic heritage, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation and/or political ideology.
12. They recognize it is their responsibility to communicate any problems or concerns to the appropriate Odessa college personnel, such as instructors, counselors, and coaches. This includes extended absences, health problems, job conflicts, emergencies, incarcerations, family problems, and documented learning disabilities.
13. They follow appropriate procedures if they a grievance. After discussing the problem with the instructor, coach, or counselor first, they proceed in a hierarchical order as diagramed below, following the steps outlined in the Student Right to Due Process, available in full text from the office of the Vice-President for Student Life.
