Supervision

*Instructor: Sue Jones
Business Leadership Department*

Name: Sue Jones

E-Mail: sjones@odessa.edu

Phone: 432-335-6454

Office: Sedate Hall Room 209

Office Hours: As Posted

Preferred Method of Communication:

You can contact me by email or phone. I will contact you using your OC email address.

Expectations for Engagement for Instructor:

As an instructor, I understand the importance of clear, timely communication with my students. In order to maintain sufficient communication, I will

- provide my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;
- respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday; and,
- notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of during the time I am unavailable.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will

- provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and
- communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will provide grades for major assignments within 2 weeks of the due date or at least 3 days before the next major assignment is due, whichever comes first.

Required Textbook: Supervision Concepts and Skill Building 8th edition by Smuel C. Certo. McGraw-Hill/Irwin Publisher. ISBN: 978-0-07-802918-9. (<http://www.mhhe.com/certo8e>).

Instructor's Comments:

This course is an overview of the field of study generally called Management. This course will help you make better decisions for your organization, which adds value to you as an employee. Be sure to read and follow the instructions found below and also for each assignment. To be successful in the course you should:

- allow plenty of time to do the assignments. The assignments are not designed to be done quickly. Set aside several hours each week to specifically work on this course.
- pay close attention to the due date for each lesson. There are penalties for late work.
- contact me at sjones@odessa.edu any time during the semester with questions, comments, or other issues regarding this course. I look forward to hearing from you.

Course Description

BMGT 1301 Supervision (52.0201)(3-0) 3 credit hours. The role of the supervisor. Includes managerial functions as applied to leadership, counseling, motivation and human relations skills. (COs 1,2,4,5, & 6)

Course Student Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course student will be able to

1. Explain the roles, characteristics and skills of a supervisor
2. Identify the principles of management at the supervisory level
3. Define the human skills necessary for supervision
4. Explain motivational techniques used by a supervisor in a working environment

Course Objective

This course is designed to help students communicate adequately with peers; reason and make sound decisions based on objectives and adequate information; describe and recognize the prime elements of supervision to include: planning, organizing and controlling work, managing people at work, handling sensitive problems, improving employee performance.

Course Prerequisites: None

Grading

Type of Assignment	Percentage
Online Quizzes	30%
Short Answer/Essay Questions	30%
Case Analysis	25%
Web Activities/Research	10%
Final Exam	5%
Total	100%

Grading Scale:

"A" = 89.5-100

"B" = 79.5-89

"C" = 69.5-79

"D" = 59.5-69

"F" = 0-59

Evaluation Methods and Policy:

All lessons (assignments) have due dates. Student should contact instructor regarding late assignments and arrangements made to submit late work. Points will be deducted for each day the assignment is late. Each lesson will have multiple assignments associated with a particular chapter in the book and your grade will be a compilation of the categories listed above.

Lessons will be available beginning the first day of class. The lessons may only be submitted for grading once. If you experience technical difficulties, please contact me.

The projected cutoff for A's, B's, C's and D's is based on 90%, 80%, 70% and 60%, respectively. At the end of the semester these projected cutoff points will be adjusted (i.e. raised or lowered) in order to reflect the overall performance of the class. Thus the actual grade will not be known with certainty until after the semester is over.

Student's grades will be posted regularly to the OC Gradebook. If submitted before the due date, the lesson will be evaluated after the due date.

Business Leadership students should be aware that a grade of "C" or better is necessary to meet the degree or certificate requirements.

General Course Requirements

Each lesson consists of multiple assignments:

1. Online quiz (EZ TEST) - determining your comprehension of the material in the specific chapter or chapters of the book
2. Web activity - developing your research skills and discovering resources available to supervisors.
3. Discussion questions/case analysis - measuring your understanding of the specific topics addressed and developing critical thinking skills necessary to be successful in today's workplace.

You will receive a grade for each assignment.

When answering essay and discussion questions, please use complete sentences and include an example from your own experience or that of a friend whenever possible. Points will be deducted for not providing personal examples.

Student Course Participation

As a student, I understand that I am responsible for keeping up with the course. To help with this, I will

- identify alternative computer and internet access in case my primary computer crashes or my internet service is unavailable;
- recognize that the college provides free wi-fi and computer labs during regular campus hours to help me with accessing my course; and,
- understand that my instructor does not have to accept my technical issues as a legitimate reason for late or missing work if my equipment or service is unreliable.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate quickly with the instructor any issue or emergency that will impact my involvement with or performance in the class. This includes, but is not limited to

- getting "kicked off" of the system during tests or quizzes;
- having trouble submitting assignments; and
- dealing with a traumatic personal event.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to understand course material and requirements and to keep up with the course calendar. While my instructor is available for help and clarification, I will

- seek out help from my instructor and/or from tutors;

- ask questions if I don't understand; and
- access my course several times during the week to keep up with assignments and announcements.

As a student, I understand that I will have the opportunity to provide feedback on my experience in this course through an end-of-course Student Evaluation of Instruction (SEI).

Course Policies

Disclaimer

This syllabus is tentative and subject to change in any part at the discretion of the instructor. Any changes will be in accordance with Odessa College policies. Students will be notified of changes, if any, in a timely manner.

Original Effort

The work submitted for this course must be original work prepared by the student enrolled in this course.

Digital Protocol

Cell phones must be placed on either vibrate or silent mode and are to be accessed in emergency cases only. The use of laptops or any other digital device is permitted in order to facilitate learning.

Back-up and/or additional copies of all assignments submitted is encouraged.

Computers/printers are available to OC students in the LRC (301-303); therefore, not having access to a computer due to technical issues (crash; corrupted files) will not be considered as an acceptable reason for not completing assignments. If there is a loss of server connection with Odessa College due to maintenance, then an email will be sent to students with pertinent information and status reports. Assignments submitted electronically need to follow the file-type requirements provided by the instructor.

Grade Inquiry

It is the responsibility of the student to keep track of assignment submissions and grades. At any point, you are welcome to meet with the instructor to discuss your academic progress. Contact the instructor to schedule an appointment.

General Course Requirements

1. Attend class and participate.
2. Contribute and cooperate with civility.
3. Submit assignments on time. Points will be deducted for each day the assignment is late.

Incomplete Policy

An 'Incomplete' grade may be given only if:

1. The student has passed all completed work
2. If he/she has completed a minimum of 75% of the required coursework. A grade of an "I" will only be assigned when the conditions for completions have been discussed and agreed upon by the instructor and the student.
3. An Incomplete form is submitted

Scholastic Dishonesty

Scholastic dishonesty shall constitute a violation of these rules and regulations and is punishable as prescribed by board policies. Scholastic dishonesty shall include, but not be limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism and collusion.

"Cheating on a test" shall include:

- Copying from another student's test paper
- Using test materials not authorized by the person administering the test.
- Collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test without permission from the test administrator.
- Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing or soliciting, in whole or in part, the contents of an unadministered test.
- The unauthorized transporting or removal, in whole or in part, of the contents of the unadministered test.
- Substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for one's self, to take a test.
- Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered test or information about an unadministered test.
- "Plagiarism" shall be defined as the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one's own written work.
- "Collusion" shall be defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements. (Source: Odessa College Student Handbook 2012-2013, page 29-30)

Special Populations/Disability Services/Learning Assistance

Odessa College complies with Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If you have any special needs or issues pertaining to your access to and participation in this or any other class at Odessa College, please feel free to contact me to discuss your concerns. You may also call the Office of Disability services at 432-335-6861 to request assistance and accommodations.

Odessa College affirms that it will provide access to programs, services and activities to qualified individuals with known disabilities as required by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), unless doing so poses an undue hardship or fundamentally alters the nature of the program or activity. Disabilities may include hearing, mobility or visual impairments as well as hidden disabilities such as chronic medical conditions (arthritis, cancer, diabetes, heart disease, kidney disorders, lupus, seizure disorders, etc.), learning disabilities or psychiatric or emotional disabilities. A student who comes to Odessa College with diagnosed disabilities which may interfere with learning may receive accommodations when the student requests them and submits proper documentation of the diagnosis. A Request for Accommodations form and guidelines for beginning the request process are available in the OC Help Center or on the Odessa College web site at <http://www.odessa.edu/dept/counseling/disabilities/index.htm>. The college strives to provide a complete and appropriate range of services for students with disabilities such as assistance with testing, registration, information on adaptive and assistive equipment, tutoring, assistance with access and accommodations for the classroom where appropriate. For information regarding services, students with disabilities should contact the Office of Disability Services in the OC Help Center located in Room 204 of the Student Union Building or call 432-335-6433. Dropping a Course or Withdrawing from College

Students wishing to drop a non-developmental course may do so online using WebAdvisor, at the Wrangler Express, or Registrar's Office. A student wishing to drop a developmental course or withdraw from college should obtain a drop or withdrawal form from the Wrangler Express or the Registrar's Office. Students are encouraged to consult with instructors prior to dropping a class. Students may not completely withdraw from the college by use of the Web. Students must drop a class or withdraw from college before the official withdrawal date stated in the class schedule. Students who are part of the Armed Forces Reserves may withdraw with a full refund if the withdrawal is due to their being ordered into active duty. A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an instructor that the student wishes to be dropped. Failure of a student to complete the drop/withdrawal process will result in a grade of "F." (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 36)
