About Me:

Hello, my name is Eric Baker and I am the Director of Instrumental Studies, and the Chair of the Department of Music and Drama here at Odessa College. I am excited to teach this course, and I am sure that you will enjoy it. Understand, that you will get out of this course exactly what you put into it. If you are responsible to check in each day and cover the material, listen to the recordings, watch the videos, and complete your assignments, you will not feel overwhelmed. However, if you try to cram it all in at the last minute, you won't experience all that this class has to offer, and your grade could suffer. If you need any help or assistance, please don't feel afraid to call or email me. I love helping people!

Preferred Method of Communication:

I always prefer written communication. Email is best, but you may text me at 432-413-7252. Be sure to include your name and this course when you text, or I may not know who you are.

- provide my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;
- respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday; and,
- notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of during the time I am unavailable.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will

- provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and
- communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will

- post grades for discussion postings within one week of the discussion thread closing.
