About Your Instructor:

Welcome! I am so excited to have you all in my course! I have been teaching at Odessa College since 2012 in the Psychology, Sociology and Substance Abuse Counseling Department. Currently I instruct both online, lecture and hybrid courses in Child Psychology, Lifespan Growth and Development Psychology, Social Psychology and General Psychology.

Prior to Odessa College I was a full time Professor in New York (where I was born and raised). I spent the first 5 years of my career as a Professor teaching at various Community Colleges in NY delivering instruction in General Psychology, Lifespan Psychology, Social Psychology, Sociology, Child Psychology, Adolescent Psychology, Infant and Child Psychology, Evaluation

Research and Measurement Psychology and Human Sexuality.

I hold an Associates, Bachelors, Masters and PhD (ABD) in General Psychology with a concentration in clinical counseling. Prior to teaching I have worked as a school Psychologist, Behavior specialist and advocated with Child Protective Services as a social worker. I have been on several published Psychological research teams during my undergraduate years as a Psychology student.

Throughout the course I will supply you with as much information as I can possibly provide based on my working background as well as my academic background as a Psychologist. I encourage you to email me if you have any direct questions. My email is sent directly to my IPAD and IPHONE so I can be available to you as much as I can!

I am currently instructing General Psychology, Lifespan Psychology and Child Psychology at Odessa College this Fall 2014 semester.

Preferred Method of Communication:

Email is best! My email is set up to both my personal cell phones as well as my laptop! Please allow me 24 hours to respond to your email. If you do not hear from me in 24 hours 1) make sure you have emailed the correct email MYjordan@odessa.edu 2) then email again! You can also find me on TWITTER, FB, and LINKEDIN etc!

Expectations for Engagement for Instructor:

As an instructor, I understand the importance of clear, timely communication with my students. In order to maintain sufficient communication, I will provide my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;

respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday; and, notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of during the time I am unavailable.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will

1. Provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and
2. Communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will

1. Post grades for discussion postings within one week of the discussion thread closing.
2. Provide grades for major assignments within 2 weeks of the due date or at least 3 days before the next major assignment is due, whichever comes first.

Assessment

Assessment of learning and comprehension in this course will be measured in several ways, according to the criteria below, with special reference to be made to analysis and judgment, evaluation, use of primary and secondary sources, application, and communication. Each grade area is weighed appropriately.

Grading

Type of Assignment	Percentage/Points
Assignment	10%/100 pts	1,2,6
Assignment	10% / 100 points	1,2,6

Blog posting and responses	20% / 200 pts/ 25pts each blog	1,3
Module Quizzes	20 %/ 200 points / 30 points each quiz	1,2,4
Survey Final Project	20%/200pts	1,2,6

100%/ 1,000 pts		TOTAL

Grading

Grading Scale:

"A" = 90-100/ 900-1000pts

"B" = 80-89/ 800-899 pts

"C" = 70-79/700-799 pts

"D" = 60-69/ 600-699 pts

"F" = 0-59/ 0-599 pts

Grading Policy:

Please understand that this is a required course for the program in order to prepare you scholarly. Quality work and active participation is expected and not to be negotiated. As a general policy, grades will be taken in class. Any written assignments or tests will be graded outside of class. You can expect feedback on assignments within a week's time from due date.

Student Course Responsibilities

Student Course Participation

Blogs are required in the online format to show participation in my course. Your response to my blog question should be a MINIMUM of 400 words. Please note that each blog is weighted 50% on your responses to at LEAST 2 other learners in the course. This means you will have to comment on at LEAST 2 other blog entries for that module with a substantial comment of at least 250-300 words

EACH. Your response should incorporate what you have learned, found interesting and scholarly about that learners post. Blogs that are commented on with "good job" "nice work" will receive a grade of zero for that response.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate quickly with the instructor any issue or emergency that will impact my involvement with or performance in the class. This includes, but is not limited to

1. Getting "kicked off" of the system during tests or quizzes;
2. Having trouble submitting assignments; and
3. Dealing with a traumatic personal event.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to understand course material and requirements and to keep up with the course calendar. While my instructor is available for help and clarification, I will

1. Seek out help from my instructor and/or from tutors;
2. Ask questions if I don't understand; and
3. Access my course several times during the week to keep up with assignments and announcements.

As a student, I understand that I will have the opportunity to provide feedback on my experience in this course through an end-of-course Student Evaluation of Instruction (SEI).

Course Policies

Disclaimer

This syllabus is tentative and subject to change in any part at the discretion of the instructor. Any changes will be in accordance with Odessa College policies. Students will be notified of changes, if any, in a timely manner.

Original Effort

The work submitted for this course must be original work prepared by the student enrolled in this course. Efforts will be recognized and graded in terms of individual participation and in terms of ability to collaborate with other students in this course.

All work in any of my courses assumes that you are the original creator of the work turned in. If I find a person to be plagiarizing ( this includes citing materials you use in papers, use APA format) or cheating on any homework, quiz, test, project or any other document a warning will be given a ZERO on that document will be recorded. If the same person is found to be plagiarizing and or cheating a second time the student will receive an F in the course and will be asked to see the department head/ Dean . The final exam is exempt from this rule. If a student is found cheating on the final exam an F will be given to that student for the course. Do your own work and this should not be an issue.

Digital Protocol

Cell phones must be placed on either vibrate or silent mode and are to be accessed in emergency cases only. The use of laptops or any other digital device is permitted in order to facilitate learning.

For online submissions, the electronic recording of the time on Blackboard will be considered the time of assignment submission. Take necessary steps to ensure that your assignments are submitted on "Blackboard" time. Back-up and/or additional copies of all assignments submitted is encouraged. Computers/printers are available to OC students in the LRC (301-303); therefore, not having access to a computer due to technical issues (crash; corrupted files) will not be considered as an acceptable reason for not completing assignments. If there is a loss of server connection with Odessa College due to maintenance, then an email will be sent to students with pertinent information and status reports. Assignments submitted electronically need to follow the file-type requirements provided by the instructor.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to sign in regularly to their online course. Excessive absences will be grounds for disciplinary action, and will be determined on a case-by-case basis. You are expected to sign in 4 times per week for at least 45 minutes to 1 hour each log in. (THIS IS TRACKED ONLINE VIA BLACKBOARD BY MYSELF)

AVID

This course has been identified as a course by Career, Technical, and Workforce Education as one in which teaching and learning strategies adopted by AVID will be implemented. As a student in the legal program, you will be expected to develop an understanding of the strategies, to model the strategies, to maintain fidelity of implementation, and to examine how these strategies may impact your effectiveness as a professional in your chosen area of occupation, either through coursework or practicum experience as outlined by the course instructor.

Grade Inquiry

It is the responsibility of the student to keep track of assignment submissions and grades. At any point, you are welcome to meet with the instructor to discuss your academic progress. Contact the instructor to schedule an appointment.

General Course Requirements

It is the responsibility of the individual taking this course to maintain accurate track of assignment submissions and grades. There will be opportunities during the semester to meet with the instructor to discuss your academic progress. Contact the instructor to schedule an appointment. Class time will not be used for grade inquiries. All grades are final.

1. Attend class and participate in blogs.
2. Contribute and cooperate with civility.
3. Submit assignments on time. Late work will not be accepted. Medical and/or family circumstances that warrant an extension on assignments need to be presented to the instructor.
4. Extensions will be allowed at the instructor's discretion.

Incomplete Policy

An 'Incomplete' grade may be given only if:

1. The student has passed all completed work
2. If he/she has completed a minimum of 75% of the required coursework. A grade of an "I" will only be assigned when the conditions for completions have been discussed and agreed upon by the instructor and the student.

Description of Core Objectives (CO's)

Given the rapid evolution of necessary knowledge and skills and the need to take into account global, national, state, and local cultures, the core curriculum must ensure that students will develop the essential knowledge and skills they need to be successful in college, in a career, in their communities, and in life. Therefore, with the assistance of the Undergraduate Education Advisory Committee, the Coordinating Board has approved guidelines for a core curriculum for all undergraduate students in Texas.

Through the application and assessment of objectives within the institution's core curriculum, students will gain a foundation of knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world; develop principles of personal and social responsibility for living in a diverse world; and advance intellectual and practical skills that are essential for all learning. Appropriate Odessa College faculty periodically evaluates all of the courses listed in the descriptions on the following pages of this catalog and keys them to Odessa College’s Institutional Core Objectives (COs), as defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB). (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 73)

Odessa College’s Core Objectives (COs):

1. Critical Thinking Skills - to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
2. Communication Skills - to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
3. Empirical and Quantitative Skills - to include the manipulation and analysis of numerical data or observable facts resulting in informed conclusions
4. Teamwork - to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
5. Personal Responsibility - to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making
6. Social Responsibility - to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities

Discipline Core Statement

PSYC 2301 meet the Social and Behavioral Science component area because they utilize the scientific method to study and explain human behavior. All courses include instruction of the scientific method, empirical data analyses and relevant theoretical and conceptual application. All courses require students to critically analyze the impact of society and culture on many aspects of human behavior, and require students to illustrate their understanding of course content using written and/or verbal communication skills. Students also explore social issues, their consequences for society and the world, and their own values, actions and responsibilities surrounding these issues.

= Required Core Objectives

Foundational Component Area	SC H	CT	COM	EQS	TW	SR	PR
(Area)	#3

Courses in this category focus on the application of empirical and scientific methods that contribute to the understanding of what makes us human. Courses involve the exploration of behavior and interactions among individuals, groups, institutions, and events, examining their impact on the individual, society, and culture.

Odessa College Policies

Tuition Discounts

The "First Course is Free" discount waives standard tuition and fees for the first 3 credit hours taken at Odessa College. The discount applies to high school graduates taking their first class at Odessa College as well as transfer students taking their first class at Odessa College.

The "Academic Progress Discount" provides a 10% tuition discount upon completion of 30 credit hours until reaching 45 credit hours. It provides a 20% discount upon completion of 45 credit hours until reaching 60 credit hours. Student must maintain a 2.0 GPA to remain eligible for the discount.

Academic Policies

Note that the OC Student Handbook states (page 32) that "[i]n cases of academic dishonesty, the instructor has the authority to impose appropriate scholastic penalties. Complaints or appeals of disciplinary sanctions may be filed in accordance with the college due process procedure. Copies of the college due process procedure are available in the office of The Director of Student Life (CC104)."

For more information on your rights and responsibilities as a student at Odessa College, please refer to the following: The 411 of OC: Student Handbook 2012-2013; Student Rights & Responsibilities <http://www.odessa.edu/dept/studenthandbook/handbook.pdf>

Scholastic Dishonesty

Scholastic dishonesty shall constitute a violation of these rules and regulations and is punishable as prescribed by board policies. Scholastic dishonesty shall include, but not be limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism and collusion.

"Cheating on a test" shall include:

1. Copying from another student's test paper
2. Using test materials not authorized by the person administering the test.
3. Collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test without permission from the test administrator.
4. Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing or soliciting, in whole or in part, the contents of an unadministered test.
5. The unauthorized transporting or removal, in whole or in part, of the contents of the unadministered test.
6. Substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for one's self, to take a test.
7. Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered test or information about an unadministered test.

8. "Plagiarism" shall be defined as the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one's own written work.
9. "Collusion" shall be defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements. (Source: Odessa College Student Handbook 2012-2013, page 29-30)

Special Populations/Disability Services/Learning Assistance

Odessa College complies with Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If you have any special needs or issues pertaining to your access to and participation in this or any other class at Odessa College, please feel free to contact me to discuss your concerns. You may also call the Office of Disability services at 432-335-6861 to request assistance and accommodations.

Odessa College affirms that it will provide access to programs, services and activities to qualified individuals with known disabilities as required by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), unless doing so poses an undue hardship or fundamentally alters the nature of the program or activity. Disabilities may include hearing, mobility or visual impairments as well as hidden disabilities such as chronic medical conditions (arthritis, cancer, diabetes, heart disease, kidney disorders, lupus, seizure disorders, etc.), learning disabilities or psychiatric or emotional disabilities. A student who comes to Odessa College with diagnosed disabilities which may interfere with learning may receive accommodations when the student requests them and submits proper documentation of the diagnosis. A Request for Accommodations form and guidelines for beginning the request process are available in the OC Help Center or on the Odessa College web site at <http://www.odessa.edu/dept/counseling/disabilities/index.htm>. The college strives to provide a complete and appropriate range of services for students with disabilities such as assistance with testing, registration, information on adaptive and assistive equipment, tutoring, assistance with access and accommodations for the classroom where appropriate. For information regarding services, students with disabilities should contact the Office of Disability Services in the OC Help Center located in Room 204 of the Student Union Building or call 432-335-6433. (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 52)

Dropping a Course or Withdrawing from College

Students wishing to drop a non-developmental course may do so online using WebAdvisor, at the Wrangler Express, or Registrar's Office. A student wishing to drop a developmental course or withdraw from college should obtain a drop or withdrawal form from the Wrangler Express or the Registrar's Office. Students are encouraged to consult with instructors prior to dropping a class. Students may not completely withdraw from the college by use of the Web. Students must drop a class or withdraw from college before the official withdrawal date stated in the class schedule. Students who are part of the Armed Forces Reserves may withdraw with a full refund if the withdrawal is due to their being ordered into active duty. A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an instructor that the student wishes to be dropped. Failure of a student to complete the drop/withdrawal process will result in a grade of "F." (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 36)
