1. Explain the communication process
2. Identify and remedy major communication barriers
3. Describe how communication contributes to effective management

Course Prerequisites:

Grading

There are projects and/or assignments associated with this course with this course as well as a Final Exam. The assignments must be completed and turned in by the due date.

Your grade will be a compilation of the following categories:

| | | |
|----|-------------------|-----|
| 1. | Attendance | 30% |
| 2. | Homework/Research | 20% |
| 3. | Quizzes | 20% |
| 4. | Presentations | 20% |
| 5. | Final Exam | 10% |

The projected cutoff point for A's, B's, C's and D's are based on a 90%, 80%, 70%, and 60% scale, respectively. At the end of the semester these projected cutoffs will be adjusted (i.e. raised or lowered) in order to reflect the overall performance of the class. Thus the actual grade will not be known with certainty until after the semester is over.

Late points will be deducted from work turned in past the due date

Student Course Participation

As a student, I understand that I am responsible for keeping up with the course. To help with this, I will

- identify alternative computer and internet access in case my primary computer crashes or my internet service is unavailable;
- recognize that the college provides free wi-fi and computer labs during regular campus hours to help me with accessing my course; and,
- understand that my instructor does not have to accept my technical issues as a legitimate reason for late or missing work if my equipment or service is unreliable.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate quickly with the instructor any issue or emergency that will impact my involvement with or performance in the class. This includes, but is not limited to

- getting “kicked off” of the system during tests or quizzes;
- having trouble submitting assignments; and
- dealing with a traumatic personal event.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to understand course material and requirements and to keep up with the course calendar. While my instructor is available for help and clarification, I will

- seek out help from my instructor and/or from tutors;
- ask questions if I don't understand; and
- access my course several times during the week to keep up with assignments and announcements.

As a student, I understand that I will have the opportunity to provide feedback on my experience in this course through an end-of-course Student Evaluation of Instruction (SEI).

A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an instructor that the student wishes to be dropped.
