About Your Instructor: Sophia Russell

Education:

EdD candidate - Educational Research and Evaluation - 2015 (Northeastern University, Boston, MA)

MA – English - 2010 - (National University, San Diego)

M. Ed. - Teaching and Learning -2004 (Nova Southeastern University, Fort Lauderdale, FL)

BA – Broadcast Journalism -1997 (Bethune-Cookman University - Daytona Beach, FL)

Experience:

I started my professional career in 1994 as a staff reporter for The Daytona Times while in college. As a writer for The Daytona Times, I had my own column called "Focus". Writing the "Focus column allowed me to meet unique and interesting people including Rosa Parks and Bill Clinton. After graduating cum laude with a B.A. in Broadcast Journalism in 1997, I moved to Augusta, Georgia and worked for the Augusta Chronicle. I moved back to Fort Lauderdale and worked in advertising sales at the Sun-Sentinel. At the Sentinel, I started spending my free time tutoring children at the Huntington Learning Center, which led to a career and Masters in education. I taught middle school at a Catholic School for 8 years and then college English beginning in 2008. I now teach College English locally at Barry University in Miami, FL and online.

Preferred Method of Communication:

You may email or call me. I prefer you to email me first before you call. Always include your problem, so I will have a solution for you before I email you back. When you call, please do not say, "Call me back." Indicate your issue in the voicemail, so I will have a solution for you before I return your call. When you email me, please be professional. Always include an opening and a closing. You do not have to be elaborate, but always include a greeting, your full name, the course (Example: ENGL 1111), and a closing. Include your email and your phone number as your signature. . . you back. Use this section to define what method of communication you would prefer to get from students. If you want them to email you, tell them to use the email address given above. If you want them to call you, tell them to call you on your office phone during the hours you will be in your office, or your cell phone, etc.)

Expectations for Engagement for Instructor:

As an instructor, I understand the importance of clear, timely communication with my students. In order to maintain sufficient communication, I will

- provide my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;
- respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday; and,

- notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of during the time I am unavailable.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will

- provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and
- communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will

- post grades for discussion postings within one week of the discussion thread closing.
- provide grades for major assignments within 2 weeks of the due date or at least 3 days before the next major assignment is due, whichever comes first.

Students wishing to drop a non-developmental course may do so online using WebAdvisor, at the Wrangler Express, or Registrar's Office. A student wishing to drop a developmental course or withdraw from college should obtain a drop or withdrawal form from the Wrangler Express or the Registrar's Office. Students are encouraged to consult with instructors prior to dropping a class. Students may not completely withdraw from the college by use of the Web. Students must drop a class or withdraw from college before the official withdrawal date stated in the class schedule. A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an
