TEXT: The Art of Public Speaking by Stephen Lucas (11th edition)

COURSE DESCRIPTION: SPCH 1315 is a three hour course in which students will learn to apply communication skills toward a specific audience. Organization of ideas, the persuasion process, and audience analysis are components of the course objectives. The student will demonstrate these objectives through prepared messages using appropriate verbal and nonverbal techniques.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Students will learn core concepts of professional speech.
- Students will demonstrate their knowledge of public speaking.
- Students will evaluate communication skills used in speaking.
- Students will learn skills to improve their ability to listen.

COURSE GOALS/OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- Organize and effectively present ideas.
- Appreciate the significance of effective oral communication.
- Employ listening behaviors that promote accurate message reception and critical thinking.
- Select language appropriate to the audience, purpose, and context.
- Understand and more effectively respond to communication apprehension.
- Demonstrate the ability to organize presentations to promote audience comprehension.
- Use sound reasoning and appropriate supporting materials in oral presentations.
- Use appropriate language and effective delivery techniques in oral presentations.

Prerequisites/Co-requisites – None

SCANS: 5, 6, 9, 10, 11

GRADES: Mid-term Exam 15%
 Final Exam 15%
 Speeches (ascending percentages) 40%
 Class assignments, Listening skills & Daily Tests 10%
 Attendance 10%

Class Participation 10%

Mid-term and Final Exams will cover chapters from the text, class notes, and videos. Daily Tests – Students will be responsible for reading assignments. If the student is absent, no make-up test will be given, and a grade of “0” will be assigned for any unexcused absence. Speeches must be made up even if points are deducted.

ATTENDANCE: Attendance is expected and critical in PS 1315.

Points are deducted for each unexcused absence. The deductions can have a deleterious effect on the final course grade. Attendance grades begin with a 95 with ten points deducted for each unexcused absence. If there are no unexcused absences the grade becomes 100.

Listening is as important as speaking. Your presence is needed!

Be on time! Three tardies will be counted as an absence. The instructor will consider legitimate absences on an individual basis. Some form of documentation may be required for certain hardships and legitimate emergencies. Wait in the hall until you hear applause after a speech if students are speaking. If the instructor is speaking, enter the classroom unobtrusively as possible. Be courteous. Turn off pagers, cell phones, and texting devices while in class.

Drops/Withdrawals: You must drop or withdraw yourself, if the need arises. Instructors may not drop or withdraw you. April 16th is the last day to drop or withdraw this semester.

Notify the instructor as soon as possible if you are unable to attend class. Please, use the e-mail: hgriffin@odessa.edu for all notifications.

A new job or change of your work schedule will not be considered as a legitimate excuse.

Students participating in O.C. athletics or other extra-curricular activities should meet privately with the instructor to arrange for making up assignments before missed classes.

MISSED ASSIGNMENTS: There will be no make-up speeches or exams without a legitimate, documented excuse for the absence.

PARTICIPATION: Class participation is important! Students are expected to take part in class discussions following lectures, videos, or speeches. Being unwilling to participate or being unprepared will result in points lowered from that area of the grade.

PLAGIARISM / CHEATING: Plagiarism, cheating, and/or any other form of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Refer to Odessa College Student Handbook for appropriate penalties.

SPEECHES: Each speech topic must be approved by the instructor. Also, for each missing item on speech day, ten points will be deducted from the student's speech presentation grade.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS: Odessa College complies with Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the American Disabilities Act of 1990.
