About Your Instructor

I have spent my career working in criminal investigations and testifying as an expert in criminal trials. I was a forensic interviewer at Harmony Home before coming to Odessa College. I interviewed child victims of sexual and physical abuse, those who witnessed violent crimes such as domestic violence or murders, and mentally handicapped adults. I also testified as an expert in the areas of child abuse, child sexual abuse, the disclosure process in victims and delayed outcries in abuse cases. I worked with law enforcement, child protective services, prosecutors, nurses, therapists and advocates to help give abuse victims a voice.

Preferred Method of Communication:

I prefer email or text since I am in class most of the time. If I do not respond by email please try another method of communication, as your email might have been moved to my spam folder.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will

Dropping a Course or Withdrawing from College

Students wishing to drop a non-developmental course may do so online using WebAdvisor, at the Wrangler Express, or Registrar's Office. A student wishing to drop a developmental course or withdraw from college should obtain a drop or withdrawal form from the Wrangler Express or the Registrar's Office. Students are encouraged to consult with instructors prior to dropping a class. Students may not completely withdraw from the college by use of the Web. Students must drop a class or withdraw from college before the official withdrawal date stated in the class schedule. Students who are part of the Armed Forces Reserves may withdraw with a full refund if the withdrawal is due to their being ordered into active duty. A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an instructor that the student wishes to be dropped. Failure of a student to complete the drop/withdrawal process will result in a grade of "F." (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 36)
