↕ Information About the Course

Course Description:

Integration of critical reading and academic writing skills. The course fulfills TSI requirements for reading and/or writing.

This integrated reading and writing course is designed to allow students to demonstrate college readiness in both reading and writing. It saves students both time and money because before the INRW classes, students would have to demonstrate college readiness by completed Basic Reading (READ 0371) and/or College Reading (READ 0372) AND Developmental Writing (ENGL 1301). Reading and writing are closely related. For example, a reader may be asked to find the main idea of a text. Writers include the main idea in a topic sentence. In college courses, students often are expected to both read and write.

Course Student Learning Outcomes:

Locate explicit textual information, draw complex inferences and describe, analyze, and evaluate the information within and across multiple texts of varying lengths

Comprehend and use vocabulary effectively in oral communication, reading, and writing.

Identify and analyze the audience, purpose, and message across a variety of texts.

Describe, analyze, and evaluate information within and across a range of texts.

Compose a variety of texts that demonstrate reading comprehension, clear focus, logical development of ideas and use of appropriate language that advance the writer's purpose.

Determine and use effective approaches and rhetorical strategies for given reading and writing situations.

Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the ideas and words of other writers using established strategies.

Evaluate relevance and quality of ideas and information in recognizing, formulating, and developing a claim.

Develop and use effective reading and revision strategies to strengthen the writer's ability to compose college-level writing assignments.

Recognize and apply the conventions of standard English in reading and writing.

II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), unless doing so poses an undue hardship or fundamentally alters the nature of the program or activity. Disabilities may include hearing, mobility or visual impairments as well as hidden disabilities such as chronic medical conditions (arthritis, cancer, diabetes, heart disease, kidney disorders, lupus, seizure disorders, etc.), learning disabilities or psychiatric or emotional disabilities. Dropping a Course or Withdrawing from College

Students wishing to drop a non-developmental course may do so online using WebAdvisor, at the Wrangler Express, or Registrar's Office. A student wishing to drop a developmental course or withdraw from college should obtain a drop or withdrawal form from the Wrangler Express or the Registrar's Office. Students are encouraged to consult with instructors prior to dropping a class. Students may not completely withdraw from the college by use of the Web. Students must drop a class or withdraw from college before the official withdrawal date stated in the class schedule. Students who are part of the Armed Forces Reserves may withdraw with a full refund if the withdrawal is due to their being ordered into active duty. A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an instructor that the student wishes to be dropped. Failure of a student to complete the drop/withdrawal process will result in a grade of "F." (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 36)
