About Your Instructor

Welcome to Introduction to Sociology. I am currently teaching Human Sexuality, Psychology, Sociology, Marriage & the Family, and Social Problems. Prior to Odessa College, I was an instructor at Broward College for ten years delivering instruction in Human Sexuality, Sociology, Social Problems, and Social Institutions. I hold a Bachelor in Social Studies from Florida Atlantic University, a Master's in sociology from Norwich University, and a Master's in Educational Leadership from Nova Southeastern University. I am currently in the doctoral program pursuing a PhD in Performance Psychology at Grand Canyon University.

Preferred Method of Communication:

The preferred method of communication is via e-mail. However, you may also attempt to contact me via my office telephone number listed above. I'm also available before or after class.

Expectations for Engagement for Instructor:

As an instructor, I understand the importance of clear, timely communication with my students. In order to maintain sufficient communication, I will

1. provide my contact information at the beginning of the syllabus;
2. respond to all messages within 24 hours if received Monday through Thursday, and within 48 hours if received Friday through Sunday; and,
3. notify students of any extended times that I will be unavailable and provide them with alternative contact information (for me or for my supervisor) in case of during the time I am unavailable.

As an instructor, I understand that my students will work to the best of their abilities to fulfill the course requirements. In order to help them in this area, I will

1. provide clear information about grading policies and assignment requirements in the course syllabus, and

2. communicate any changes to assignments and/or to the course calendar to students as quickly as possible.

As an instructor, I understand that I need to provide regular, timely feedback to students about their performance in the course. To keep students informed about their progress, I will

1. post grades for discussion postings within one week of the discussion thread closing.
2. provide grades for major assignments within 2 weeks of the due date or at least 3 days before the next major assignment is due, whichever comes first.

Grading Policy:

Multiple Choice quizzes are graded automatically. Group discussion, and essays and exercises take about a week to grade and return to students. Students can and should check grads any time during the semester under the MY GRADES button.

Student Course Participation

As a student, I understand that I am responsible for keeping up with the course. To help with this, I will

1. identify alternative computer and internet access in case my primary computer crashes or my internet service is unavailable;
2. recognize that the college provides free wifi and computer labs during regular campus hours to help me with accessing my course; and,
3. understand that my instructor does not have to accept my technical issues as a legitimate reason for late or missing work if my equipment or service is unreliable.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate quickly with the instructor any issue or emergency that will impact my involvement with or performance in the class. This includes, but is not limited to

1. getting "kicked off" of the system during tests or quizzes;
2. having trouble submitting assignments; and
3. dealing with a traumatic personal event.

As a student, I understand that it is my responsibility to understand course material and requirements and to keep up with the course calendar. While my instructor is available for help and clarification, I will

1. seek out help from my instructor and/or from tutors;
2. ask questions if I don't understand; and
3. access my course several times during the week to keep up with assignments and announcements.

Course Policies

Disclaimer

This syllabus is tentative and subject to change in any part at the discretion of the instructor. Any changes will be in accordance with Odessa College policies. Students will be notified of changes, if any, in timely manner.

Original Effort

The work submitted for this course must be original work prepared by the student enrolled in this course. Efforts will be recognized and graded in terms of individual participation and in terms of ability to collaborate with other students in this course.

Digital Protocol

Cell phones must be placed on either vibrate or silent mode and are to be accessed in emergency cases only. The use of laptops or any other digital device is permitted in order to facilitate note-taking relative to instruction. Any written assignments will be submitted electronically on Blackboard. The electronic recording of the time on Blackboard will be considered the time of assignment submission. Take necessary steps to ensure that your assignments are submitted on "Blackboard" time. Back-up and/or additional copies of all assignments submitted is encouraged. Computers/printers are available to OC students in the LRC (301-303); therefore, not having access to a computer due to technical issues (crash; corrupted files) will not be considered as an acceptable reason for not completing assignments. If there is a loss of server connection with Odessa College due to maintenance, then an email will be sent to student with pertinent information and status reports. Assignments submitted electronically need to be WORD documents (doc or docx).

Attendance Policy

Students must check into Blackboard at least 3 times each week - look at both the Announcements page and General Discussion board. For Small Group discussion, see Modules for access to your group.

AVID (Achievement Via Individual Determination)

This course has been identified as a course by the Arts and Sciences Division at Odessa College as one in which teaching and learning strategies adopted by AVID will be implemented.

"AVID, Advancement Via Individual Determination, is a college readiness system for elementary through higher education that is designed to increase school wide learning and performance. The AVID College Readiness System (ACRS) accelerates student learning, uses research based methods of effective instruction, provides meaningful and motivational professional learning, and acts as a catalyst for systemic reform and change."

Grade Inquiry Policy

Students can find their grades any time during the semester under the "My Grades" button to the left. It is the responsibility of the student to maintain track of assignment submissions and grades. You can meet anytime with the instructor to discuss your academic progress. Just call 335-6555; 413-4612 or contact instructor using Course Messages.

General Course Requirements

1. Attend class and participate.
2. Contribute and cooperate with civility.
3. Submit assignments on time. Late work will not be accepted. Medical and/or family circumstances that warrant an extension on assignments need to be presented to the instructor. Extensions will be allowed at the instructor's discretion.

Incomplete Policy

An 'Incomplete' grade may be given only if:

1. The student has passed all completed work
2. If he/she has completed a minimum of 75% of the required coursework. A grade of an "I" will only be assigned when the conditions for completions have been discussed and agreed upon by the instructor and the student.

Ethics/Cheating/Plagiarism

Ethics, Cheating and Plagiarism "Using someone else's ideas or phrasing and representing those ideas or phrasing as our own, either on purpose or through carelessness, is a serious offense known as plagiarism." "Ideas or phrasing" includes written or spoken material, of course, from whole papers and paragraphs to sentences, and, indeed, phrases. Plagiarism also includes statistics, lab results, art work, etc. "Someone else" can mean a professional source, such as a published writer or critic in a book, magazine, encyclopedia, or journal; an electronic resource such as material we discover on the World Wide Web; another student at our school or anywhere else; a paper-writing "service" (online or otherwise), which offers to sell written papers for a fee." (statement taken from <http://webster.commnet.edu/mla/plagiarism.shtml>)

I do not tolerate cheating in any form. If you plagiarize on an essay, copy from another student or cheat on an exam once, that assignment will receive a "0." If you plagiarize copy or cheat the second time, you will receive an "F" in the course.

Cutting and pasting any information from any Internet source is considered cyber plagiarism and will result on a 0 for the first offense and an F in the course for any subsequent offenses.

See the section on "Scholastic Dishonesty" in the updated Odessa College Student Handbook.

In-Class Assignments

Five in-class assignments are required for this class. Your textbook is required to complete each assignment. Each assignment will be announced following a lecture of a randomly selected class. Any late assignment will result in a 50% grade reduction. AVID strategies will be implemented.

Sociology Group Project

This semester's sociology project is in conjunction with Black History Month. This is a group collaboration project. The three themes will be famous quotations, individual contributions and significant events associated with black history. The projects will be displayed on a 6' x 2' banners. See handout for directions and grading rubric. Due date: Thursday, January 22, 2015.

Quizzes

No exemptions on any quiz. No makeup quizzes without documentation (a doctor's note, hospital or police report). A missed quiz without legitimate documentation will result in a failing grade. You are required to take the quiz even if you missed the class prior to the quiz and do not have the lecture notes and material covered in class. Quizzes consist of true/false, multiple choice and short answer questions.

Sociology Paper

A sociology paper is required for this course. The paper must be typed, double-spaced (Times New Roman, 12) and include a cover page. Also, the paper must have citations within the paper and a reference page (last page). It should be 750-1000 words and completed in the APA (American Psychological Association) format. You must have at least three scholarly sources. The paper must be submitted to blackboard. See Rubric for further explanation. A late paper will be accepted within seven days after the due date with a 50% grade reduction. No paper will be accepted following the seven day grace period. See rubric for grading guide. Identify and explain the characteristics of the three major sociological paradigms. Select a subject (chapter topic) in which the three paradigms are applied to the subject matter and elaborate on the application of the perspectives to the topic you chosen.

Final Exam

A common course comprehensive final exam is required for this course. The exam will cover material from the entire course. It is imperative that you keep your notes as a resource and study guide for the final exam. The final exam will consist of all the material from the lectures and the textbook.

Attendance/Participation

Attendance is recorded in every class. Five classes will be randomly selected for attendance/participation grade for the duration of the semester. A ten point grade reduction will occur for each time your absence for each of the randomly selected days.

Core Objectives (COs)

Description of Core Objectives (COs)

Given the rapid evolution of necessary knowledge and skills and the need to take into account global, national, state, and local cultures, the core curriculum must ensure that students will develop the essential knowledge and skills they need to be successful in college, in a career, in their communities, and in life. Therefore, with the assistance of the Undergraduate Education Advisory Committee, the Coordinating Board has approved guidelines for a core curriculum for all undergraduate students in Texas.

Through the application and assessment of objectives within the institution's core curriculum, students will gain a foundation of knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world; develop principles of personal and social responsibility for living in a diverse world; and advance intellectual and practical skills that are essential for all learning. Appropriate Odessa College faculty periodically evaluates all of the courses listed in the descriptions on the following pages of this catalog and keys them to Odessa College's Institutional Core Objectives (ICOs), as defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB). (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 73)

Odessa College's Core Objectives (COs):

1. Critical Thinking Skills (CT) - to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
2. Communication Skills (COM) - to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
3. Empirical and Quantitative Skills (EQS) - to include the manipulation and analysis of numerical data or observable facts resulting in informed conclusions
4. Teamwork (TW) - to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
5. Social Responsibility (SR) - to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities
6. Personal Responsibility (PR) - to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making

Discipline Core Statement

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology 1301 utilizes the scientific method to study and explain human behavior. All courses include instruction of the scientific method, empirical data analyses and relevant theoretical and conceptual application. All courses require students to critically analyze the impact of society and culture on many aspects of human behavior, and require students to illustrate their understanding of course content using written and/or verbal communication skills. Students also explore social issues, their consequences for society and the world, and their own values, actions and responsibilities surrounding these issues.

The “First Course is Free” discount waives standard tuition and fees for the first 3 credit hours taken at Odessa College. The discount applies to high school graduates taking their first class at Odessa College as well as transfer students taking their first class at Odessa College.

The “Academic Progress Discount” provides a 10% tuition discount upon completion of 30 credit hours until reaching 45 credit hours. It provides a 20% discount upon completion of 45 credit hours until reaching 60 credit hours. Student must maintain a 2.0 GPA to remain eligible for the discount.

Academic Policies

Note that the OC Student Handbook states (page 32) that “[i]n cases of academic dishonesty, the instructor has the authority to impose appropriate scholastic penalties. Complaints or appeals of disciplinary sanctions may be filed in accordance with the college due process procedure. Copies of the college due process procedure are available in the office of The Director of Student Life (CC104).”

For more information on your rights and responsibilities as a student at Odessa College, please refer to the following: The 411 of OC: Student Handbook 2012-2013; Student Rights & Responsibilities <http://www.odessa.edu/dept/studenthandbook/handbook.pdf>

Scholastic Dishonesty

Scholastic dishonesty shall constitute a violation of these rules and regulations and is punishable as prescribed by board policies. Scholastic dishonesty shall include, but not be limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism and collusion.

"Cheating on a test" shall include:

1. Copying from another student's test paper
2. Using test materials not authorized by the person administering the test.
3. Collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test without permission from the test administrator.
4. Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing or soliciting, in whole or in part, the contents of an unadministered test.
5. The unauthorized transporting or removal, in whole or in part, of the contents of the unadministered test.
6. Substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for one's self, to take a test.
7. Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered test or information about an unadministered test.
8. "Plagiarism" shall be defined as the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one's own written work.
9. "Collusion" shall be defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements. (Source: Odessa College Student Handbook 2012-2013, page 29-30)

Special Populations/Disability Services/Learning Assistance

Odessa College complies with Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If you have any special needs or issues pertaining to your access to and participation in this or any other class at Odessa College, please feel free to contact me to discuss your concerns. You may also call the Office of Disability services at 432-335-6861 to request assistance and accommodations.

Odessa College affirms that it will provide access to programs, services and activities to qualified individuals with known disabilities as required by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), unless doing so poses an undue hardship or fundamentally alters the nature of the program or activity. Disabilities may include hearing, mobility or visual impairments as well as hidden disabilities such as chronic medical conditions (arthritis, cancer, diabetes, heart disease, kidney disorders, lupus, seizure disorders, etc.), learning disabilities or psychiatric or emotional disabilities. A student who comes to Odessa College with diagnosed disabilities which may interfere with learning may receive accommodations when the student requests them and submits proper documentation of the diagnosis. A Request for Accommodations form and guidelines for beginning the request process are available in the OC Help Center or on the Odessa College web site at <http://www.odessa.edu/dept/counseling/disabilities/index.htm>. The college strives to provide a complete and appropriate range of services for students with disabilities such as assistance with testing, registration, information on adaptive and assistive equipment, tutoring, assistance with access and accommodations for the classroom where appropriate. For information regarding services, students with disabilities should contact the Office of Disability Services in the OC Help Center located in Room 204 of the Student Union Building or call 432-335-6433. (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 52)

Dropping a Course or Withdrawing from College

Students wishing to drop a non-developmental course may do so online using WebAdvisor, at the Wrangler Express, or Registrar's Office. A student wishing to drop a developmental course or withdraw from college should obtain a drop or withdrawal form from the Wrangler Express or the Registrar's Office. Students are encouraged to consult with instructors prior to dropping a class. Students may not completely withdraw from the college by use of the Web. Students must drop a class or withdraw from college before the official withdrawal date stated in the class schedule. Students who are part of the Armed Forces Reserves may withdraw with a full refund if the withdrawal is due to their being ordered into active duty. A copy of the student's orders must be presented to the Registrar's Office at the time of the withdrawal. For details, please contact the Office of the Registrar. No longer attending class does not automatically constitute withdrawal from that class, nor does a student's notification to an instructor that the student wishes to be dropped. Failure of a student to complete the drop/withdrawal process will result in a grade of "F." (Source: Odessa College Catalog of Courses 2012-2013, page 36)
